Round Nine

3rd June 2006

Under 11 Division 2

Prospect 2 – Quakers Hill 0

Player of the Week: Raj

Encouragement Award: Riley

Goal Scorers: Gurkan

Field: William Lawson

This is going to be an interesting game. We're in third spot playing the second placed team. Last time we faced Quakers we went down, so this is almost a "do or die" game to stay in range of the leader. Soccer is a strange game anything can happen. The best you can do is only to try to minimize the mistakes. It's not just a contest on the field either, but also a contest between coaches. Who can come up with the better formation given the players on the team, almost a game of chess! Each player has particular attributes, skills, temperament that they bring to the game, just as on a chess board.

First half; was nervous, each side probing, taking shots, testing the others defenses. At the break the score was nil all.

Coming into the second half the boys were keen and aware who to mark and who to take on. Using the Old Italian style of game of marking each man really slowed down and frustrated the opposition forwards no end. Replacing players at the right time during a game is crucial and this played well into maintaining the momentum of our game.

The first goal from Gurk came not very long into the first half. The crowd behind me went nuts. The second goal was just breathtaking. Gurk struck the ball very firm with his left foot. It curled over the fullbacks and bent around heading straight for the left post. Time stood still. It's in!! It's in!! The Prospect parents behind screaming with joy. The ball glanced off the inside of the post and into the back of the net!! 2 to Nil.

The rest of the game was spent defending the lead we had. A couple of anxious moments near our goal area saw a few tense minutes but placing more into the back line gave strength when we needed it. Full-time whistle declares a win! We move up to second spot just six points behind Glenwood.

The boys played really well this week, marked up well, nice crisp passing, talking and supporting your teammate, all working as a team!! Keep up the ball skills home-work guys and see you Tuesday & Thursday at training.... Well done to Quakers Hill for the match. Many thanks to the United Cheer Squad encouraging the boys!

Next week: Glenwood at their home ground. Go The REDS!! Go The REDS!!

U/16 Girls

Sunday 4 June

Prospect (Red) 5 vs Good Sheppard 3

Encouragement Award – Emily

Well – it's good to be back in the winning way! After our loss last week, we were keen to get it together again. Unfortunately, we only had 12 players available – so they all had to work very hard and didn't get a lot of rest time.

We had a fantastic first half. Highlights were:

- 4 goals by Elif (she just keeps them coming!)
- A number of good shots from others
- Terrific goal keeping from Cassie who saved a penalty - as well as several other good quality shots.
- Great running from Mel, Sheree, Emily & Chloe.
- Great defense from back line

We finished the first half up 4-0. But the girls were starting to tire and it showed in the second half. Good Sheppard put on 3 goals to our 1 making it 5-3 at the final whistle. The girls were just about walking by the end of the game.

Highlight of the second half was a goal from Sally and fantastic keeping from Emily – who threw herself into the battle and suffered a few scars as a result! For her fantastic efforts on the field and in goal, Emily received the Player of the Match.
